Tips:

Journal abbreviations may not work—try spelling out the name in full.

If a journal does not appear in the A-Z list then you do not have electronic access to it with your NHS OpenAthens account:

Request a copy from the library using the request form in the library or on the library webpage.

Knowledge where it’s needed.

Further Help: Please contact the Library Staff for more information. Training can be organised to suit individual or team circumstances.

Access to e-journals
Access to e-journals is via your NHS OpenAthens username and password. You can self-register for NHS OpenAthens at https://openathens.nice.org.uk/

For more information see Guide 1: NHS OpenAthens. Once registered you can access journals from any internet connection.

Finding Journals
From the Library homepage: https://dorsetnhs.libguides.com
Select A-Z of Library Services. Then “Journals A-Z”

You will need to sign in with your NHS OpenAthens account at the top right of the page in order to access the Journal Search Bar.

If you know the title, or it’s only a word or two, the ‘Start of default in the Search box is best.

The information will inform you if we have the journal via an online collection or locally in print.

If asked to sign in look for the Athens or OpenAthens login and use your OpenAthens username and password.

If you need more help look out for drop in training sessions or ask the library for advice.

Finding Journal Articles
Select year, volume, issue and page numbers, or you can search within the journal by keyword.

Search for full text journal articles
From the Library Links ClinicalKey see Guide 3: ClinicalKey

Or you can search the databases for article references
HDAS – Medline, CINAHL, EMBASE etc
Proquest see Guide 2
